

Allen Craig Harrison

February 28, 1954 - July 1, 2024

Craig Harrison age 70 (1954-2024) passed away in El Cajon July 1st from complications related to Parkinson's disease. Craig was a hardworking, passionate individual who managed to live through several previous illnesses. He was a determined survivor with a strong spirit.

A cabinet maker by trade, Craig was a master craftsman and woodworker. He was skilled in many areas, including the restoration of various types of antiques. He loved building models, especially models of sailing ships. Among his many interests he was fascinated with the creation of miniature furniture and detailed rooms. He was fearless. He loved and was loyal to his family first of all. Under a quiet demeanor was a quirky personality and sense of humor. He was a loving father and husband, warm-hearted and caring.

Craig was born in Nottingham, England to Milroy Harrison and Dora Mary (O'Conner) Harrison. His mother died when he was two and he was later raised by his father and stepmother, after his father remarried. He is survived by his wife Mary, children Andrew, Tracey, and Lynsey, stepdaughter Katrina, grand children Chloe and Oliver, brothers Jason and Ashley, and stepmother Patricia.

Tribute Wall

“ Simply Elegant Spathiphyllum was purchased for the family of Allen Craig Harrison.

July 31, 2024 at 12:20 PM

“ Mu lovely son who I will miss,,you can shed tears that he is gone,or you can smile that he livid,,,you can close your eyes and pray he will come back,or you can open your eyes and see all he has left,,,three wonderful children,lovevmumxxxxx

patricia harrison - July 22, 2024 at 11:06 AM