

Harry Otis Eastus II

November 18, 1949 - August 30, 2025

Harry Otis Eastus II was born on November 18, 1949, in Irumagawa, Japan, to his devoted parents, Harry and Grace Eastus. Growing up in a loving environment, he developed strong values that would guide him throughout his life.

After completing high school, Harry made the decision to serve in the U.S. Navy, where he learned discipline and commitment. His time in the military not only shaped his character but also sparked his interest in public service. Following his honorable discharge, he pursued higher education, ultimately earning an associate's degree.

Harry's career in law enforcement began shortly after graduating. Over the course of 32 years, he rose through the ranks to become a respected police officer. His leadership and dedication led him to serve as president of the police officers' association, where he worked tirelessly to advocate for the rights and needs of his fellow officers.

Harry was known for his quick wit and warm personality, traits that endeared him to everyone he met, from colleagues to community members. He had a unique ability to connect with people, often brightening their day with humor. In his leisure time, Harry enjoyed hitting the golf course, finding relaxation and camaraderie with friends during friendly games.

Sadly, on August 30, 2025, Harry Otis Eastus II passed away at his home in San Diego, California. His family, friends, and countless individuals who had the honor of knowing him mourn his loss deeply. Harry's legacy of kindness, service, and laughter will forever remain in the hearts of those he touched.
