

Victor Roland Cooper

April 30, 1962 - August 26, 2025

Victor Roland Cooper was born on April 30, 1962, in San Diego, California, to his devoted parents, Walter and Jacqueline Cooper. Growing up in a warm and supportive environment, Victor learned the values of hard work and determination from an early age.

After high school, Victor embarked on a career in construction and gained expertise as a Pettibone operator, mastering the operation of heavy equipment with skill and precision. His dedication to his craft earned him the respect of colleagues for over three decades.

Victor took immense pride in being a father to his two sons, Bryce Cooper and Wyatt Cooper, and his two grandsons, Bryson and Kash. Victor is survived by his mother, Jacqueline Cooper, older brother Walt Cooper, and sister Colleen Cooper.

On August 26, 2025, Victor Ronald Cooper passed away in San Diego, California. His absence leaves a profound void in the lives of his family and friends, who will always cherish his generous spirit, infectious laughter, and the warmth he brought into their lives. He will be greatly missed by everyone who knew him.

Victor's presence and personality were larger than life!
